

ipolicy

An initiative of Centre for Civil Society

ipolicy for aspiring leaders

A brief introduction to ipolicy

About Centre for Civil Society

- India's leading liberal think tank, ranked 80 worldwide.
- To translate policy training into practice, we engage with policy & opinion leaders through research, pilot projects and advocacy.

About ipolicy

ipolicy is an introductory course in Public Policy. The course involves a variety of interactive learning methods, including dynamic games, talks, dialogues, and documentaries, designed to provide participants with opportunities to explore and share ideas about policy-based solutions to social problems from a liberal perspective.

What would you gain from us

Gain Exposure

Explore wide range of topics in the areas of livelihood, governance, education, poverty, law, corruption, politics and more.

Certification

Receive a Certificate of Completion to enhance a student's credentials.

Acquire Skills

Develop analytical reasoning and public speaking skills through debates, case studies and working groups.

Future Opportunities

Join our alumni network of over 8000 ipolicy graduates for various internship and academic updates.

Some of our Faculty at ipolicy

Swaminathan Aiyar

Consulting editor for the Economic Times

Gurcharan Das

Author of The Difficulty of Being Good: On the subtle art of dharma which analyses the epic, Mahabharata

JP Narayan

Founder & General Secretary at Foundation for Democratic Reforms

Dr. Reuben Abraham

CEO & Senior Fellow at IDFC Institute

Rajeswari Sengupta

Ass. Professor of Economics at the Indira Gandhi Institute of Development Research (IGIDR)

Niranjan Rajadhyaksha

Executive Editor of Mint

Parth J Shah

President of Centre for Civil Society

Some of our Alumni

Trisha Mani, Credit Course in Economics & Public Policy, St Xavier's College, Mumbai, 2015

Following the course, she wrote a paper focused on competition in international trade policy and the case against protectionism in emerging markets.

Swati Chawla, Liberty, Arts & Culture Seminar, 2004

Swati Chawla is currently a PhD candidate at the University of Virginia.

Yavnika Khanna, Liberty & Society Seminar, 2003

Taking the movement for liberty international, Yavnika was the first chairwoman of the SFL- South Asia.

Venkatesh Geriti, ipolicy: Certificate Course in Public Policy, 2013

He now runs India's Future Foundation, running training courses in public policy, impacting more than 5,000 students a year in Telangana and Andhra Pradesh.

Abhinav Singh, ipolicy: Certificate Course in Public Policy, 2012

He was one of the first members of the Students For Liberty Charter Team in India and is now on the Executive Board for the South Asia chapters of SFL.

Rishi Kochhar, Liberty & Society Seminar, 2002

Rishi is now running his own think tank, the Amritsar Policy Group

Some of our Partner Institutions

TEACHFORINDIA

CMS
CITY MONTESSORI SCHOOL

A Glimpse of ipolicy

Thank you

Centre for Civil Society

rohan.jolly@ccs.in

<https://ccs.in//ipolicy/ipolicy-schools>

/ccsindia

